Part 3: Translation

Please translate the following selection of Latin into proper, idiomatic English:

Deus eum audivit et sine mora coepit formicas in homines mutare! Itaque Iuppiter, cui nihil est nimis difficile, viros feminasque fecit parvis ex animalibus. Filius Aeaci erat Peleus, cuius filius erat ille Achilles, dux Myrmidonum.

The god heard him and without delay begins to change the ants into men.
And so Jupiter, for whom nothing is too difficult, made men and women out of small animals. The son of Aeacus was Peleus, whose son was that Achilles, leader of the Myrmidons.
